Earn CE Credit & Satisfy the REALTOR® Code of Ethics Training* Requirement in One Day!

formerly known as Quadrennial Code of Ethics training*

Bruce Aydt, ABR, ABRM, CRB, GRN, SRS

Attorney & Past Chair of the NAR Professional Standards Committee

Join Bruce Aydt, a nationally recognized real estate educator, in a day-long seminar covering the Code of Ethics and processes to enforce the Code. As past chair of the NAR Professional Standards Committee, Bruce understands professional standards processes and the Code of Ethics. Whether you are a member of the Grievance Committee, Professional Standards Committee or Board of Directors, this seminar will provide you with up-to-date topical information on how each part of the Code enforcement process works.

Topics Will Include:

- Due Process
- Grievance Committee Reviews
- Hearing Processes
- Arbitration Processes
- Procuring Cause

The current NAR Ethics training cycle is from January 2009 to December 2012. If you have not yet met the NAR Code of Ethics training requirement during this time period, you have until December 31, 2012 to do so. Don't delay!
