Client represents that Client is not a party to an exclusive buyer/tenant representation agreement with any other person or firm. Client understands that other prospective buyers or tenants represented by Firm may seek property, submit offers, and contract to purchase or lease property through Firm, including the same or similar property as Client seeks to purchase or lease. Client acknowledges, understands and consents to such representation of other prospective buyers or tenants by Firm.

Firm has advised Client of Firm's general company policy regarding cooperation with other agents. Firm may represent more than one party in the same transaction only with the knowledge and informed consent of all parties for whom Firm acts.

(a) Authorization (initial only ONE).

_____ Client authorizes the Firm to act as a dual agent, representing both the Client and the seller/landlord, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section Paragraph below.

_____ Client desires exclusive representation at all times during this agreement and does NOT authorize Firm to act in the capacity of dual agent. If Client does not authorize Firm to act as a dual agent, the remainder of this Section Paragraph shall not apply.

(b) Disclosure of Information. In the event Firm serves as a dual agent, Client agrees that without permission from the party about whom the information pertains, Firm shall not disclose to the other party the following information:

- (1) Prior to the time dual agency occurs, Firm will act as Client's non-exclusive agent;
- (2) In its separate representation of Client and seller/landlord, Firm may obtain information which, if disclosed, could harm the bargaining position of the party providing such information to Firm;
- (3) Firm is required by law to disclose to Client and seller/landlord any known or reasonably ascertainable material facts. Client agrees Firm shall not be liable to Client for (i) disclosing material facts required by law to be disclosed, and (ii) refusing or failing to disclose other information the law does not require to be disclosed which could harm or compromise one party's bargaining position but could benefit the other party.

(d) Client's Role. Should Firm become a dual agent, Client understands and acknowledges that:

- (1) Client has the responsibility of making Client's own decisions as to what terms are to be included in any lease or purchase and sale agreement with a seller/landlord client of Firm;
- (2) Client is fully aware of and understands the implications and consequences of Firm's dual agency role as expressed herein to provide balanced and fair representation of Client and seller/landlord and to encourage and effect communication between them rather than as an advocate or exclusive agent or representative;

- (4) Client may seek independent legal counsel to assist Client with the negotiation and preparation of a lease or purchase and sale agreement or with any matter relating to the transaction which is the subject matter of a lease or purchase and sale agreement.

Client agrees to indemnify and hold Firm harmless against all claims, damages, losses, expenses or liabilities, other than violations of the North Carolina Real Estate License Law and intentional wrongful acts, arising from Firm's role as a dual agent. Client shall have a duty to protect Client's own interests and should read any lease or purchase and sale agreement carefully to ensure that it accurately sets forth the terms which Client wants included in said agreement.

This Agreement does not obligate you to pay a brokerage fee or assure the payment of a brokerage fee to Firm, which will be compensated under an offer of compensation from a cooperating seller/landlord/listing firm.
